Tragic Death of Arthur B. Polley

The very sad word of the death of P.O. Arthur B. Polley cast a gloom over the town of Strathmore as the tragic news became generally known and the sincere sympathy of the community is extended his young widow, the former Miss Alice Garrett, and families.

It was in October of last year that the marriage of P.O. Polley and Miss Alice Garrett was an interesting social event, and now this tragedy has come to darken an otherwise happy future.

Following their marriage, P.O. Polley and Mrs. Polley resided in Treton for a few months. They returned to Calgary early in the present year from whence P.O. Polley was transferred to Brandon where the tragic crash of two planes in manoeuvres occurred which resulted in the death of both pilots.

Funeral services were held in Calgary Saturday last.

Full Military Honors Given Victim of Brandon Crash

Pilot Officer Arthur B. Polley of Calgary was buried with full military honors in the Field of Honor, at Burnside cemetery Saturday afternoon following a service at Grace Presbyterian church.

The church service was conducted by Flt. Lt. Rev. Minto Swann of No. 3 S. F. T. S., assisted by Rev. Alfred Bright. Soloist was Dave Morgan.

Pallbearers were R. C. A. F. sergeants and honorary pallbearers were pilot officers, all from Currie school. The No. 2 Wireless school band and a guard of honor escorted the R. C. A. F. hearse from the church.

Principal of the Craigmyle school when he enlisted in the R. C. A. F. PO Polley had been a flying instructor at No. 12 S.F.T.S., Brandon, for the past five months. His plane crashed following a mid-air collision above an emergency landing field.

MUNICIPALITIES CONVENTION TO OPEN JUNE 26

Mayor Hughes, Sec. M. B. Garrett, T. M. Wears, Town Solicitor, will attend the meeting of the Union of Alberta Municipalities in Calgary, Thursday and Friday, June 25 and 26.

One of the most important addresses to be given at the convention will be a talk by Dr. Robert Newton on "Reconstruction". The speaker, who is president of the University of Alberta, will deal with problems which will confront the various nations after the war.

GOOD ROADS

A traveller through the country returning to Strathmore last week was very enthusiastic about the good road situation prevailing north of the town and around Nightingale way. We are pleased to pass on these kindly comments.

DEDICATION AND CONFIRMATION SERVICE AT ST. MICHAEL'S

A most impressive and interesting service was held in St. Michael and All Angels' Church Sunday last when R.D. Rev. L. Ralph Sherman, D.D. conducted the service assisted by the Rector, Rev. Leslie T. H. Pearson.

New pews have been placed in the Church add greatly to the already attractive appearance. These were dedicated by Bishop Sherman, who after the dedication ceremony stated that in his fifteen years of service in Calgary, he had made several trips to Strathmore for the purpose of dedicating additional place either inside or out of the Church.

In an eloquent and inspiring address to the eleven candidates for confirmation and the congregation in general the Bishop based his remarks on "Foundation Principles in the Christian Religion". His Lordship said that there were definite rules of guidance laid down by the Master. These he termed "The Great Excepts" of which there are many, for example:

"Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God."

"Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom."

"Except ye eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, ye have no life in you," etc.

The Bishop admonished the candidates to make Christ their Guide always and strength would be given them to meet any obstacles.

The candidates confirmed were Misses Vivian Cler and Ethel Brookman of Gleichen, and Phyllis Hartell, Gwen Tew, Corydwen Tudor and Mrs. Frank Sowden, Ken Sarsons, Kenneth McKenzie, Billy Young, George Keeling and Billy May of Strathmore.

There was a large congregation present, several coming over from Standard to enjoy the service.

NAMES WANTED

In our issue of July 2, Army Week, the Standard is planning to publish a list of all the men and women who have enlisted from this district. That includes Strathmore, Namaka, Cheade, Langdon, Carseland, Lyalta, Standard, Baintree, Nightingale, Rockford, Ardene, Crowfoot, Dalemead, Tudor, Valley Gardens, and Hervey.

We wish to make this list as complete as possible. Will anyone knowing of any boys, men or women who have joined up from your district please send them to the Strathmore Standard not later than Thursday, June 25.

Thank you.

In England 100 pounds of wheat is officially expected to produce 70 pounds of flour.

FURTHER DISCUSSION OF WATER SITUATION

A Committee representing the M. D. of Blackfoot No. 218, Bow Valley No. 219, Shepard No. 220, Grasswold No. 248, Keoma No. 249 and Beddington No. 250 met in Calgary on Saturday, June 13th, with Mr. Geo. Ross, Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Board and members of his staff, the Hon. Mr. D. B. MacMillan and Mr. Sauder, Director of Water Resources. The meeting was called to discuss the question of future water supplies in the Western Section of the Irrigation Division and was a continuance of the several meetings held in Strathmore during the past few months.

The meeting was well attended by representatives of the surrounding districts and a great deal of benefit derived from the discussion and also from the information given by the speakers. The Committee will meet again in the near future to make definite and final plans for the assurance of future stock watering and irrigation.

B.V.I.T. Sports Day

The Sports Day under the auspices of the B.V.I.T. & F.A. was held last Saturday after having been postponed from Friday 29 May. The weather was splendid, but, largely owing to the postponement, the competition was very seriously interfered with. Only four of the seven centres had representatives and of these four only two had anything like a full turnout.

The winners of the cups in each class were as follows—

Class	Name	Points	School
A	Boys, Raymond Pilardy	39	St. More
A	Girls, Viola Bartelen	44	Turner
B	Boys, Ken Hay	39	Strathmore
B	Girls, Marjorie Sterner	39	Arwood
C	Boys, Billy Pytlan	38	Gleichen
C	Girls, Myrtle Morton	24	Berla Vale
D	Boys, L. Mackie	56	Cairnhill
D	Girls, Anne Bell	40	Shamrock
E	Boys, D. MacLean	59	Gleichen
E	Girls, F. Kostynuk	26	Baintree
F	Boys, Don Reed	67	Gleichen
F	Girls, Betsy Bell	63	Cluny
G	Boys, Paul Ostrom	51	Carseland
G	Girls, Dale Cole	51	Carseland
G	Girls, E. Gooderham	53	Gleichen

A pleasing feature was that in the fourteen classes, five cups were won by rural schools.

For the Condon Trophy awarded for the most points won by the representatives from any one centre, the Gleichen-Arwood-Cluny area obtained 1041 points and the Strathmore-Carseland area 938.

For the first time a public address system was used. This was of enormous help. Mr. Worger, Principal of the Carseland School did the announcing in a most efficient manner.

Engagement Announced

Schulte-Gardiner The engagement is announced of Miss Margaret Gardiner of Banff to Theodore Milne Schulte, son of Mr and Mrs T. Schulte Strathmore.

The wedding will take place in Calgary early in July.

TUDOR SOCIAL EVENING IN HONOR OF MR. & MRS. A. W. HALEY

A very delightful Social Evening was held at the A. W. Miller home Friday, June 12, yet one in which joy and sadness were intermingled as the Tudor Community regrets very sincerely the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Haley and family who are being transferred to Didsbury. While the transfer is a promotion in which their friends congratulate them, the loss of their general assistance and friendship is keenly regretted. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of garden flowers.

Some contests were arranged, after which addresses of appreciation were given by Dr. T. M. Henderson and Mr. A. Miller, and one especially for Mrs. Haley given by Mrs. Ruppe on behalf of the ladies.

The committee who arranged everything so beautifully comprised Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ruppe.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley were presented with a most artistic Laval electric table lamp with the sincere wishes of all for their continued progress and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley are deeply appreciative of so much kindness and would like to take this opportunity of thanking the Tudor community and friends from surrounding districts for the genuine and sincere friendship they have been accorded in the eleven years they had lived among them.

The following very beautiful address was written and read by Mrs. Henderson.

To the Haley's

Who have given so freely of their time and talents to the community, and whose optimism, generosity, and helpfulness have endeared them to their friends, we dedicate this message:

For years you have travelled along with us through pleasant valleys, and over rough and stony paths and now we have come to a divergence in the pathway and you are leaving us to go on to greater opportunities and a fuller life.

May you forget the brambles of disappointment and disillusionment encountered and remember only the flowers gathered along the way.

The roses of friendship, violets of peace and contentment; and bright flowers of joyous and happy days.

May you carry with you a sprig of Rosemary for remembrance of the friends you are leaving behind. In the book of memories you will take with you, may human frailties be recorded with compassion and understanding and good intentions and friendly gestures illuminate its pages with the rare effulgence of shining jewels. In the future when you turn the leaves in thoughtful reverie we trust you will find inspiration and courage, from some memory recorded there.

You will be greatly missed as we continue along the way but we rejoice in your good fortune and wish

THE 'OUT-SIDE'

● The "seal coat" surfacing of the Trans-Canada highway section for 35 miles from Walsh, on the Saskatchewan border, to Redcliff, west of Medicine Hat, has been completed, according to officials of the public works department.

● Twelve hundred Japanese are working on the Blue River highway between Jasper and Kamloops, in speeding the construction of that gap on the northern outlet to the Pacific coast.

● Farmers who normally require seasonal help will show more than passing interest in the announcement by officials of the Edmonton branch, Unemployment Insurance Commission, that within two months every employable man in Edmonton and Calgary will be put to work. "The labor market will be swept clean," it was stated. "Three large projects" in Alberta and British Columbia will drain the market of all unemployed, it was added. Nature of the projects was not made public.

● Validity of The Legal Proceedings Suspension Act passed at the last session of the Legislature was under test this week as hearings opened following a reference by the Alberta Government to the Supreme Court of Alberta. Representing the Canadian Banking Association, George H. Steer, K. C. submitted Wednesday that the act makes possible the continuance of the Debt Adjustment Board, which he claimed was illegal in view of a court verdict on The Debt Adjustment Act. This act is now awaiting consideration by the Privy Council. Hearings are proceeding.

● "I do not regard seniority as being a governing factor in connection with appointments to commands."—Hon. J. L. Ralston, Minister of National Defense.

every success and all the good things of life to you. We know you will succeed for you have minds unafraid to travel through the course be not chartered.

Your ever ready sense of humor will smooth out the rough places you will encounter, your sympathetic understanding and ready helpfulness will bring true and steadfast friendships, and your devoted duty will lead you on to still greater opportunities. As true friendship is a living vital thing that may lie dormant for a while, but takes only a tiny spark to give it life anew, so we say not farewell dear friends, but au-revoir and God speed.

Mr and Mrs Haley carry with them to their new home very many happy memories, and the warmth of sincere friendship—that is above price.

P. S.—The Standard would like here to add our own personal regret at the removal of the Haley's to more distant fields.

Mrs Haley has been our Tudor correspondent for several years and we have always enjoyed her unique and original description of events.

THRILLING HISTORY OF PASSENGERS ON REFUGEE SHIP

Before the United States entered the war, two of the most popular places in the city of Lisbon, capital of Portugal, were rather dingy shipping offices. One of them had a certain air of romance about it, for it belonged to Pan American Airways whose big Clipper planes were supposed to fly from Lisbon to New York three times a week. It was on one of the main streets in downtown Lisbon, in the district occupied by the banks, the money changers and the pawn shops. All of these places were well known to thousands of refugees from Nazi-dominated Europe, who had escaped to the freedom of Lisbon and who hoped to go on to the United States or somewhere else in the New World, out of Hitler's reach. It was easy to imagine these refugees making their hopeless rounds. And no place would be more hopeless than the ticket offices of Pan American Airways, for only the greatly privileged with "pull" at Washington or London, or Ottawa, ever set foot in these ships with wings.

In October, 1941, there was another place visited by thousands of these persons who still hoped to escape. That was the office of American Export Lines. This was a steamship company, with ambitions to take to the air as well and break its monopoly enjoyed by Pan American. But the war with Japan intervened before the first Export Lines plane took to the air. The company was sending three ships a month to Lisbon. And the most famous of them all was the S. S. Excambion.

Out of Europe by Refugee Ship—

The eight Canadian editors, temporarily stranded in Lisbon, had return tickets for the Clipper, but the weather was interfering with plane schedules and danger was drawing closer all the time. There would not even be a boat out for two weeks if we did not go by the Excambion, so one or two at a time, we gave in to the inevitable, turned our Clipper tickets over to the British Embassy and received boat tickets in exchange.

The Atlantic by Refugee Ship— The Atlantic is New York, about twice as wide as from Newfoundland to Ireland. The water is blue and warm with occasional dolphins jumping out of the waves and playing around the ship.

There was some delay in leaving Lisbon. I had come on board early, after paying out my last few escudos to the Portuguese police guard at the wharf entrance — their last chance to get graft out of the departing travellers. I had intended to keep that money for souvenirs and was a bit sore about it.

The harbor was interesting, as all harbors are. From the land side, big cranes were lifting casks of wine, crates of raisins and figs, and boxes of unmarked goods. On the river side, odd little sailing vessels, unchanged from Phoenician days, had cargoes of cork brought from the interior. They were family affairs, evidently, and inhabited not only by people but by dogs, hens and fighting cocks.

It was dark when the Excambion pulled out and sailed down the broad Tagus river. Now that I was leaving it, Lisbon looked lovely, set on its seven hills, one of the few brilliantly lighted cities left in Europe. The last bit of Europe I could see was the red neon sign over the gambling casino at Estoril.

There was a feeling of tension on board that decreased gradually as the days passed, but flared up again as fresh news came in. Just before the Excambion left Lisbon, there came word that an American destroyer had been torpedoed by the Germans. It seemed that the United States might be in the war at any moment. Two days out, we heard that an American passenger ship had been sunk just south of us. Boat drill took on a new earnestness.

About half-way across the Atlantic there was fresh anxiety. A grey ship was approaching from the north, giving no signal. It looked like a merchantman, but as it came closer, the passengers with glasses could see its guns. The Canadians took it for granted that it was a ship of the British Navy, and it seemed that some of the enemy aliens on board feared the same thing. If it came alongside, somebody seemed likely to be taken off, whether British or German. The grey ship crossed our bows, several miles ahead and then put on speed and was quickly out of sight. None of us ever knew what ship it was, but the Captain shared our view that it was British. From that time on, we felt safer.

The Excambion travelled alone, not in convoy. It was lighted at night, and had an American flag painted on the side. It made just two more trips after that, before being taken over by the American Navy. There must have been thousands of sad hearts in Lisbon when it sailed away for the last time.

Living With Adventure

The stories of the people on that ship would have filled a library, and many of them were horror stories. I mentioned some of them in the first story of this series, written while on the Atlantic. But I omitted the most exciting of them all.

OTTAWA LETTER

F. W. GERSHAW, M. P.

In 1921, Arthur Edel was a modest wine merchant in Berlin. He sold a bottle of wine for 40 marks. In 1923 he got 3,000,000,000 marks for a similar bottle. He smuggled a few bottles to Holland at times and received $4 a bottle there. When he had $250 he bought with it the most beautiful house in the richest section of Berlin with a Rembrandt "thrown in". Another man, H. Stines, bought 1200 houses for less than $300 each. At that time there were 400 printing presses in Germany turning out marks day and night. An egg cost 125 million marks. A pound of bread or potatoes cost 125,000,000 marks. People felt they were being robbed, as indeed they were, and whole families started out on thieving expeditions. People stole from the churches, from their neighbors, from anyone they could reach to secure food and clothing. All the moral crimes, even murder, were committed by the few rich who had secured possession of material things or the desperate deluded poor, whose earnings were of no value. The dispossessed, the ruined, the frustrated and the frightened formed the base on which Hitler built his dream Citadel.

Yesterday the galleries were crowded and almost all the members were in their places to hear the Prime Minister speak on the Natural Resources Mobilization Act. The substance of his speech was that the Government being relieved of any promises they had made by the vote of the people on the Plebiscite would put in Conscription for overseas service whenever it was needed. This seemed to appeal to most members as being the reasonable thing. However, it was bitterly resented by about 50 of the Quebec members who call the leader "Traitor King" because they claim he by way of the plebiscite, had disregarded his promise not to enforce Conscription. Members from Quebec who voted "yes" on the Plebiscite are now under fire. Several have had their homes attacked, windows broken and other damage done. One member told me he had been warned never to return to his home city if he voted for Mr. King's amendment. I said, "Oh that is only the threat of some individual." "No," he replied, "It was a resolution passed by 2,000 people in a public meeting."

Mr. Hanson, the Conservative leader, he would support Mr. King's Amendment but there will likely be a long debate on it. While methods may differ and while free speech and much speaking makes slow progress, yet the fixed determination of practically all is to withhold nothing in making a maximum contribution to the greatest struggle to uphold the rights of mankind that civilization has ever faced.

Canadian Pacific Air Lines Girls Keep Trainers Flying

CANADIAN PACIFIC AIR LINES are making a notable contribution to Canada's war effort in the elementary training and engine overhaul fields. The young ladies shown above are working long and hard in the production end of the flying game and their trained efforts are of real importance in the task of blowing Hitler and Hirohito off the map. In shops located at strategic points throughout the Dominion, girls, who were once stenographers, sales girls and students, are now busily engaged under the Canadian Pacific Air Lines banner. Picture on the left shows Miss Ina Lane putting all the energy of her twenty years into doing her bit to make up one of the other, trooper Westley Lane, who is overseas with the Fort Garry Horse. With her is Miss Muriel Carr, also twenty, and both of them are sanding the wing structure of a trainer plane. The upper right hand picture shows Miss Muriel Stevenson, who confesses that she would rather assemble instrument panels as a contribution to the cause than sell dry goods in a department store. Her heart is in the work and the panels go together with a will. The lower right picture shows Miss Florence Nordal in a Canadian Pacific Air Lines operated engine overhaul plant. She is testing valve springs which, a far-cry from her old job of clerk in a country creamery

All the girls in this industry have one motto and it is to keep the training planes flying. This is the kind of spirit that Hitler cannot match and is one of the factors which will eventually soundly defeat him.

"BIRDS WITHOUT WINGS"

THE PARACHUTE RIGGER

A parachute to an airman is like a lifeboat to the sailor. At any time he may be called to trust his life to that little pack of silk which accompanies him on all his flights. The parachute rigger is entrusted with the prime responsibility of keeping all "chutes" in serviceable operating order at all times.

During the war 1914-1918, it became evident that a dependable parachute was needed but the war ended before a really reliable type of parachute was developed. In all countries after this war a great deal of experimental work was carried out and many excellent and reliable parachutes were developed.

The Royal Canadian Air Force Service Parachute is the result of several years research and testing covering every known type of parachute.

As parachutes are used to save life in an emergency, the utmost care is taken of them at all times. Neglect on the part of the rigger may cause expensive repair, or worse, may cost someone his life. The chutes must be kept dry and away from oil or gasoline, a few drops of which will deteriorate the silk. The Rigger inspects all parachutes at least once a month at which time they are repacked. A careful check on this important phase of his work is kept by means of a Parachute Log Book which must be entered by the Rigger giving the serviceability state and the date of repacking.

Parachute Riggers are given an extensive training course and must be highly proficient in their trade. Attention to detail is of a necessity important and the Rigger cannot get by with sloppy or indifferent work. That he is an important cog in the machinery of the air force comes home to an airman as he plummets to earth and, pulling the rip cord, breathes a fervent prayer that his rigger has been on the job.

Though we cannot, while we feel deeply, reason shrewdly; yet I doubt if, except when we feel deeply, we can ever comprehend fully.—John Ruskin

"He that by the plough must thrive Himself must either hold or drive."
 —Benjamin Franklin.

We must give the Germans, the Japanese, and the Italians and the rest of the world a vivid demonstration of the principles that aggression does not pay and that it will not pay in the future; that we know that the world is indivisible, that we must protect ourselves collectively against future aggressive gangsterism; and that we must insure our peace by giving every nation and every individual the opportunity of employment and of social and economic security.

DUTCH HARBOR

HOW swiftly we get new geography lessons these days! And how far do these Japanese admirals spread themselves! By attacking the Aleutian Islands they shift the scene of war in the Pacific 8,000 to 10,000 miles from the Bay of Bengal and the Coral Sea. By the time this is read enough may be known about these attacks to disclose the Japanese purpose clearly. So far they look like forays designed to test American defenses in Alaska or forestall attack from the north. Like any offensive, they enjoy the advantages of surprise and of making the defender prepare at many points.

Certain distance factors place Japan at a disadvantage for an invasion of Alaska though landings might be simple on a far flung coastline. From Seattle or Spokane, Dutch Harbor is only about 1,700 miles. Reinforcements particularly air reinforcements can go quickly and by protected routes. On present information the attack appears to have more connection with Tokyo's plans with Siberia.

Dutch Harbor, which until recently was only a village with a trading post, a fuel oil depot, and a naval radio station, received its name because of the tradition that a Dutch ship first entered its bay, a bulletin from the National Geographic Society points out. Russian navigators, however, early came this way. They knew the then-busy fur-sealing centre by its native Eskimo name of Ukaika. Later the harbor became a way station for vessels making for the gold rush regions of the Yukon and Nome, Alaska. Christian Science Monitor.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE CONFERENCE

WEDNESDAY, June 24— the Constitution Convention of the Women's Institute will be held in Strathmore.

The members of this organization are busy, progressive, intelligent women dealing with practical and beneficial activities. The discussions are on live topics of general interest.

Visitors will be welcomed at the afternoon session, and any of our townspeople who can attend, will spend a profitable and interesting hour.

It isn't so hard to live on a small salary if you don't spend too much trying to keep it a secret.

THE TINSMITH'S SHOP CHANGING FACE

This old landmark is being remodelled, and is putting on a newer and brighter if not more useful front. The place known of yore as the Tinsmith's Shop shall be known as such no more.

Built and occupied first about 1908 by Mr. McCann, it was used for three or four years as a meat store. He was succeeded by Mr. Careful who opened up a plumbing and tinsmithing business, who in turn sold out to the Dakin Bros.

About 1918, the business was bought and operated by a clever workman and unique character, the late James Moran, who carried on until his death in 1930.

The business was taken over by Andy Fraser who carried on until about three years ago.

While Strathmore needs a man of this trade in town, the war is absorbing all such. Hence the transformation into the dwelling. The prospect does not seem an easy one, but after the transformation made by Anson Chase resulting in his very attractive suite, we reserve any such judgement.

The tinsmith shop has been the rendezvous for many a varied clique, and strange tales the walls could relate could they but speak.

There is room for many improvements in many houses but while the war is restricting the sale of all building materials for other than war purposes, it is difficult to add much, but it is a civic duty for each to make the best improvement possible for our town.

NAMAKA

By M. W.

This Community was shocked to learn of the death of PO Arthur Polley at Brandon, Man., last Thursday evening. Her many friends here extend their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Polley.

Don't forget the Red Cross Bazaar June 24th at 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. H. E. Johnson.

Mr. Hallman, organizer of Junior Clubs in Alberta, visited Namaka last Wednesday to help organize the Namaka Out Club. Jerome Hanson was elected president. There are 13 active members. Due to the scarcity of seed oats, club membership is somewhat curtailed, there being nineteen boys who were anxious to join the club. We wish the Juniors every success in their enterprise. Mr. Whit bread, district agriculturist, and Mr. Roach of the poultry division were also present and addressed the meeting.

On Friday evening last an enjoyable ball game was played at the Namaka school grounds when the school team challenged the married men. The married members were able to come out ahead after being behind.

ROCKYFORD

—By R. M. G.—

The Women's Auxiliary of the Rockyford Red Cross met for their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Poole on Wednesday afternoon, June 3rd. Mrs. McLuhan, president of the society, presided during the business for the day. A War Savings Certificate was drawn for and Mr. Donnelly was the winner. During the social hour Mrs. L. W. Roppel and Miss Fromie Hendricks served a suitable lunch. The day of meeting was changed to the first Tuesday of each month as the gas rationing makes it hard to come on Wednesday when stores are closed and two birds cannot be killed with one stone.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Roberts are spending their holidays in Rockyford, and have taken over the managing of his father's store while he and his mother have two weeks away from their duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Feser have been able to bring their little girl home from the hospital after her operation for mastoid. She is now recovering rapidly.

James A. Saar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Saar has enlisted in the R. C. A. F. at Calgary.

Mr. Keith Williams is home for a two weeks leave. He is training as a pilot with the R.C.A.F. and will be returning to his new training post somewhere in Saskatchewan early next week. This week he is renewing acquaintances in Calgary while his mother and father attend the municipality convention in Edmonton.

The Rockyford Hall was the scene of a very enjoyable evening of dancing on Tuesday, June 8, when the friends of the former Miss Cleopha Stinson and her husband, Mr. Jack Shark, made them honor guests in a wedding shower. The gift table in the front of the hall was beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers from a large white bell above and was loaded with a grand display of useful and decorative gifts. During the lunch hour, Mr. Harry Katterhagen, on behalf of the community extended best wishes to the newlyweds, to which they both replied and thanked all. After their short honeymoon, the happy couple will reside in Calgary where the groom is employed.

A wedding of great interest to everyone in Rockyford was conducted at the Knox United Church in Calgary on Saturday at 7 pm when Miss Thelma Margaret Wise, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wise of Rockyford, became the bride of Mr. Arnold Johnston of Calgary, Rev. A. R. Hubbard officiating.

The bride looked very charming in her floor length gown of white sheer over satin. Her Chapel veil was held in place with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of deep pink roses and white ribbons. She was given in marriage by her father.

As her attendant, her sister Mary Jean wore a floor length gown of mauve chiffon and carried mauve sweetpeas, while her friend, Miss V. Foster, wore pale blue with matching accessories and carried pink Sweetpeas.

The groom was ably attended by his friend, Mr. Russell. The bride and groom's two brothers acted as ushers. A delightful reception was tendered about 150 relatives and friends at the Palliser Hotel after the ceremony.

After a short honeymoon at Banff and other mountain points, the happy couple will make their home in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Ruid are rejoicing over the birth of a baby daughter in Calgary on Monday, June 8. Both mother and Marjorie Ann doing well.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Heinziemer in Calgary on Sunday, June 14.

WEDDINGS

BILLON — HALPIN

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized Thursday, June 18, in St. Michael's Church with Rev. Leslie T. H. Pearson officiating, when Anne G. Halpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Halpin of the Turner Valley Flare, became the bride of Herbert Billon, Hubalta, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Billon of Winnipeg.

The attendants were Miss Laura Halpin and Mr. W. H. Halpin, sister and brother of the bride. After a honeymoon in Banff, the happy couple will reside in Calgary. Their many friends extend warm congratulations.

 "Yes—so he was telling me all this morning."

"I notice that the Bowleys seem to get along much better these days."

MEETING OF A. T. A.

The monthly meeting of the Bow Valley Sub-Local was held in Strathmore, June 10.

After the minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted, we had a short report on the Salary Negotiations by Mr. Crowther. In the absence of Mr. Bragg, the chairman of the committee, a report on the Field Day was read by Mr. Crellen.

Following the business meeting, the teachers enjoyed an educational film on earthquakes. Several contest games, led by Mr. Crellen, were enjoyed by the gathering, and the last A. T. A. meeting of this year was brought to a pleasant close.

AGREEMENTS OF VAST IMPORTANCE RUSSIA, BRITAIN, U. S. IN ACCORD ON SECOND FRONT

Russia, the United States, and Great Britain have reached a complete identity of views on opening a second front against Germany in Europe this year. Its military importance in winning the war was brought about by the personal negotiations of Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Soviet Commissar for Foreign Affairs, who has been secretly in London and Washington for the past three weeks.

Prior to his unannounced arrival in Wash., May 29, Mr. Molotov and Anthony Eden, British Foreign Secretary concluded in behalf of their two Governments a 20-year mutual assistance treaty.

Separate Russo-British and Russo-American agreements were reached. They embody the same purposes, the most intimate, vigorous, and inseparable conduct of the war, a guarantee against any independent peace and a pledge of the fullest collaboration in postwar reconstruction.

KITCHEN KINKS

Wooden furniture, that might in ordinary times, should now be treated with special care to make it last.

Its chief enemies are summer moisture and the dry heat of homes and apartments in winter. They cause loose joints, loosening of veneer, warping and cracking. Best protection against both is a good oil or polish that will seal the surface and preserve it.

An inexpensive polish can be made by mixing one part turpentine with two parts of boiled linseed oil. Use at least twice a year on furniture that is varnished or oiled. The turpentine in the mixture will loosen the dirt, and the oil will penetrate the wood pores and keep the wood in good condition.

Apply with a soft cloth. Wipe off excess with a clean cloth, then fold this cloth over and rub the surface until it is entirely dry and fingers will leave no marks.

If the wood is badly soiled wash with a mixture of three tablespoons of boiled linseed oil and one tablespoon of turpentine in a quart of hot water, then polish. Little scratches can be concealed with iodine or rubbing with nut meat, such as walnut. White spots on varnished furniture caused by water or hot dishes can be removed by rubbing with spirits of camphor or essence of peppermint.

APPLICATION CARDS FOR COUPON RATIONING OF SUGAR

will be mailed next week to every Household in Canada

Canadians will be required to register so that ration cards, good for the 10 week period, commencing July 1st, may be issued immediately. At the end of that period a coupon ration book, good for six months, will be issued.

HOW TO REGISTER

Residents in Urban Areas not served by Letter Carrier, and Residents in Rural Areas

Application cards will be distributed to all householders through the post offices on or before Tuesday, June 23rd. Additional cards will also be delivered for every person resident in the household, who bears a different last name from the head of the household. If needed, extra cards may be secured from local post offices.

These application cards should be filled out immediately and dropped in the nearest mail box or post office. A pamphlet giving complete instructions will be delivered with each card. As soon as your name is duly registered at headquarters, ration cards, good for a ten-week period, will be mailed to you—one ration card for each person in your home. These will be for sugar only.

Coupon Rationing for Sugar Becomes Effective July 1st

Beginning July 1st, no one will be permitted to buy sugar for regular domestic use without a ration coupon.

Prompt co-operation on the part of the public in filling out and returning their application cards is necessary to ensure return of the ration coupon card in time to purchase sugar on or after the above date.

Remember—the amount of sugar allowed each individual under the new coupon rationing plan will be exactly the same as allowed at present— $\frac{1}{4}$  pound per person per week.

The provision for additional sugar for preserving, etc., will be continued. Special voucher forms for this purpose are being supplied to all retailers. No person may have on hand more than two weeks' supply of sugar, unless resident in a remote district.

SUGAR RATIONING For canning fruit, one-half pound of sugar can be obtained for each pound of fruit. For jams and jellies, three-quarters of a pound of sugar can be obtained for each pound of fruit. The housewife must acquaint her retailer with the use for which the extra sugar is required, and sign a statement to that effect. Farmers who have to supply meals to threshing crews and allo filers, may also obtain extra sugar within the ration requirements, on explaining the purpose to his retailer.

Several prosecutions for sugar hoarding were made last week. A man in Montreal was fined $200 and a Japanese near Kelowna, B. C., was fined $100 and the excess sugar was confiscated, for having sugar in excess of the ration requirements.

OIL HARD ON RUBBER

If your garage floor has become covered with grease, give it a good scrubbing. Remember that oil is an enemy of rubber, and if your tires stand in the grease day after day there is certain to be abnormal deterioration.

F. W. GERSHAW WRITES FROM OTTAWA

Members of the House of Commons often specialize on certain problems. Some speak only on Labor problems, some only on Farm problems and others only on Money theories. One has earned the name of the official "Wag". Whenever he speaks he tries to get a laugh. He will interject such remarks as: "Do you believe in the Darwin Theory?" "The problem would be settled if all the Japs were transferred to Toronto" or "Is the Honourable member for or against it". The leader of the Opposition gave a hint by telling a story of the late President Coolidge: This man of few words, went to church. When he returned his wife asked him what the sermon was about. He replied, "Sir." "Well," said his wife, "what did he say about it?" "He is against it," replied the President. Another member might be called the "dinner-bell" because he talks so often and for such long periods that many members go out rather than listen to him. This week when one member rose and, for thirty minutes gave fulsome flattery to the Minister of Finance, an Opposition member called him the official Back-scratcher of the administration.

The United Kingdom is still the only market for export wheat but the Government will buy 250 million bushels instead of 230 million as of last year.

The price will be 90c instead of the 70c of last year, for the initial payment. A minimum price of 60c for barley, 45c for oats and $2.25 for flax has been fixed. All prices are on the Ft. William basis. Two dollars an acre will be paid on land taken from wheat and seeded to barley, flax, rye, peas, corn, clover grasses or summer-fallowed. The payment is based on the reduction of Wheat acreage in 1942 as compared with the 1940 acreage.

It is likely that the P. F. A. payments will only apply to a township if the yield is eight bushels per acre, or less. The increase of 20c per bushel will bring an additional $1.60 per acre, or more, per acre as compared with last year. War requirements call for more hogs, milk, beef, wool, eggs, barley and flax, cheese, etc.

The bonuses that have been paid have helped many farmers to tide over the evil days but they have been sadly disappointing to some on account of the slowness of payment. Much correspondence, many inspections, discrepancies in figures and misunderstandings of the Regulations. It is felt by many that, as the money is coming from the taxpayers, that a good price should be paid by the Government for farm products and a system of crop insurance should be started to save the farming industry. This, together with a vigorous irrigation policy to construct more dugouts, stock watering reservoirs, irrigation and water conservation schemes would go a long way toward making a happy, contented, prosperous people occupying real home-like homes.
